Plaintiff,

v.

Civil Action No. 07-017 (GMS)

KRAFT FOODS GLOBAL, INC.,
TASSIMO CORPORATION, and
KRAFT FOODS INC.,

Defendants.

STIPULATION AND ORDER
REGARDING EXPERT DISCOVERY

The plaintiff and defendants in this litigation anticipate that a number of experts will be preparing reports and testifying and therefore, in order to efficiently manage the expert discovery, the parties agree as follows, subject to the approval of the Court:

1. No drafts of expert reports need be produced.
2. Along with the expert report, or within a reasonable time thereafter, the expert will be required to produce to the opposing side copies of all documents and information that were relied upon in preparing the expert's final report. Documents not relied upon by the expert need not be produced.
3. Discovery or questioning of expert witnesses shall not extend to the production of documents, oral examination, or any other form of inquiry concerning:
 - (a) drafts, notes, or other prior work product prepared in this case and abandoned (i.e., not being relied upon by the expert), or

(b) communications to or from or in the presence of an attorney for the party expecting to call the expert witness, unless the expert is relying upon the communication as part of the basis for his or her expert testimony.

4. The deposition of each expert shall not exceed seven (7) hours, exclusive of breaks.

5. Nothing in this Stipulation and Order shall be construed to limit the discovery or examination of expert witnesses concerning the basis for an expert's final opinions or the documents or other information considered in rendering that final opinion.

6. Until such time as this Stipulation and Order has been signed by the Court, the parties agree that upon execution by all parties, it will be treated as though it had been ordered by the Court.
